Dev ET Software Consultant

A Committed Team of Elite Software Developers in Ethiopia.

Where Our Developers Make an Impact

Addis Ababa University: Empowering Campus Innovation

- Student Portal: A comprehensive platform for students to access academic records, schedules, and other essential services.
- Admission Portal: A streamlined online system that simplifies the application and admission process for prospective students.
- Test Application Portal: An integrated platform for students and faculty to manage, schedule, and track exam-related activities.
- Program Management System: A robust system to manage academic programs, courses, and student progress, ensuring smooth administration.
- AI-Backed Program Comparison System: A smart tool leveraging artificial intelligence to help management compare academic programs based on various factors, aiding in informed decision-making.
- Online Testing System: A secure and scalable platform enabling online exams, assessments, and evaluations for both students and instructors.

Oromia Education Bureau: Transforming Education Management

- Student Registration Portal: Real-time online registration and data collection for students.
- EMIS Data Portal: Efficient gathering and management of education data for better decision-making.
- School Management System: A comprehensive platform for managing student records, attendance, and academic progress.
- Teacher Management System: A system to track teacher data, including qualifications and performance.
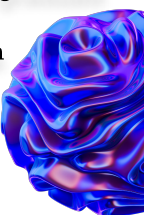

Ethiopian Human Rights Commission: Strengthening HR Management

- HRIS (Human Resource Information System): A comprehensive platform for managing employee data, payroll, and performance.
- Server Management: Ensuring secure, reliable server infrastructure to support the Commission's digital operations.
- Ongoing Support: Providing continuous technical support and system updates to maintain smooth and efficient operations.

Ministry of Education: Pioneering National Graduate Admissions

- System Deployment: Designing and implementing the digital infrastructure for the national graduate admission test.
- Test Administration: Managing the logistics and technical aspects of administering the exam nationwide, ensuring smooth execution.s.

CONTACT US!